

DESIGNATED MEDIATORS' CONTINUING EDUCATION & ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM

WHY MAINTAINING YOUR CHARTERED MEDIATOR OR QUALIFIED MEDIATOR DESIGNATION IS IMPORTANT

The C.Med and Q.Med designations are recognized levels of achievement signifying a practitioner meets specific professional criteria, keeps current in the field, and adheres to ADR Institute of Canada's (ADRIC) professional Codes of Ethics and Conduct. Provincially and nationally, they represent both an achievement and a responsibility for the individual practitioner. They also reflect a conviction that the professional practice of mediation can safeguard the interests of the parties and the general public.

Your efforts toward education and/or engagement represent your commitment to continuous learning in a profession impacted by economic, social, business and legislative changes.

HOW TO MAINTAIN YOUR CHARTERED DESIGNATION. YOU MUST:

- ✓ Be a member in good standing of your regional Affiliate and ADRIC; annually pay your Affiliate membership dues and applicable designation renewal fees. Abide by the Code of Ethics and the Code of Conduct.
- ✓ Document your Continuing Education and Engagement on the CEE Reporting Form and attain a minimum number of points (100 points for a C.Med; 60 points for a Q.Med) over the three-year period following receipt of your designation, or your last filing period*, in compliance with the following rules:
 - For C.Med holders: No single sub-category may contribute more than 50 points over three years toward your CEE credit, unless specifically noted. Some sub-categories may be restricted to less than 50 points, as specifically noted.
 - For Q.Med holders: No single sub-category may contribute more than 30 total points over three years toward your CEE credit, unless specifically noted. Some sub-categories may be restricted to less than 30 points, as specifically noted.
 - Points cannot be carried over from one three-year period to the next.
- ✓ Complete and submit the CEE Reporting form to ADRIC and applicable fee 60 to 90 days before the expiry of the 3 year period.

for Mediators

REPORTING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES:

When recording professional development activities on the Worksheet and Report, please remember they should be related to the 21 Professional Competencies for Chartered Mediators developed by ADR Institute of Canada, Inc. For further information relating to these competencies go to <http://adric.ca/wp-content/uploads/2015/11/COMPETENCIESGUIDELINES.pdf>

Each eligible education and engagement activity can be counted only once on the record. If a specific activity is listed more than once, points will only be awarded the first time it is listed. Points can be accumulated in any or all eligible categories, as long as they add up to the combined minimum or more. (Check with your regional affiliate if you are unsure about the acceptability of any activity.)

*Extensions to the three-year timeframe may apply if the applicant has had parental, disability or retirement leave(s) during the renewal period. Please direct questions relating to extensions to ADRIIC.

Audit: To ensure the integrity and standard of professionalism reflected in the granting of the designations, ADRIIC audits some renewal applications, selected randomly. It is important to retain all supporting documentation for one year to validate your submission. However do not submit your supporting documentation unless requested to do so.

Submission prior to your designation expiry date does not change your original designation period. Check with ADRIIC if you are unsure of the expiry date.

PRIVACY POLICY

ADRIIC and your regional Affiliate are committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Information collected from this form will be used for renewal/certification purposes only.
