ADRIC 2014:

ADR in the Making: New Code, New Culture

PRE-CONFERENCE Sessions:

Wednesday October 22, Morning Pre-Conference Workshop: NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION: SCIENCE OR FICTION?

Presented in French

Myths and misconceptions about non-verbal communication, such as "liars avoid eye contact and display more body movements than truth tellers," can have disastrous effects on the efficiency of interpersonal relations. As part of this training, you will be introduced to the science behind non-verbal communication to address the numerous false beliefs that can affect decision making processes. Despite the popularity of some of these myths, one should not conclude that non-verbal communication is useless: scientists have studied the subject extensively as well as the detection of deception in general. Even without a non-verbal behavior like Pinocchio's nose, there are significant demeanours that should draw the attention of a trained observer. You will learn what to observe, how to interpret and adapt to it to add this specialized tool to your kit; a highly valuable asset.

This workshop is being facilitated by Vincent Denault, CFE, Lawyer, Non-Verbal Communication Specialist.

PERSONAL BRANDING WORKSHOP:

'THE ART AND SCIENCE OF SELF-PROMOTION'

Presented in English

THIS PROGRAM CONTAINS 1.5 LSUC PROFESSIONALISM HOURS

There is a wealth of customer loyalty research that exists. If consumer behaviour can be predicted, then there is no reason why in-house counsel and dispute resolution practitioners cannot benefit from this information. One concept that has taken hold is "personal branding." Personal branding is not about creating an artificial image for the outside world. It is about understanding your own unique value proposition, and using that to influence clients and co-workers.

In this interactive workshop, you will:

- Discover the importance of having a personal brand.
- Be guided through a fun and thought-provoking exercise to articulate your own unique value proposition.
- Learn to use your values as a compass to guide your career and make professional decisions.
- Walk away with "content" to build and promote your professional profile.

ADRIC 2014: ADR in the Making: New Code, New Culture

Breakout Sessions: Thursday October 23: Choose one session from each of the four concurrent streams per time period

Please note: All sessions, speakers and timing subject to change.

9:15 - 10:30	Arbitration - 1 A - Fontaine C Practical Issues in Domestic Commercial Arbitration Moderator: Stephen Antle , C.Arb, Borden Ladner Gervais, Sven Deimann , Head of Legal, Codes and Standards, Bombardier Transportation; Barry Fisher , former VP, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, SAP Canada; Douglas I. D. McLean , Associate General Counsel & Director - Litigation, Arbitration & ADR, TransCanada PipeLines Limited Join four experienced Canadian in-house counsel to discuss the practical realities of commercial arbitration. What are its potential benefits? How can we actually realize them? Why do we sometimes not realize them? What are the key considerations in drafting arbitration agreements, appointing arbitration counsel and choosing arbitrators? In the actual conduct of arbitrations? ENGLISH WITH SI	Mediation - 2 A - Fontaine D Mediation Under the New Code of Civil Procedure Jean Marois , President - PRDSA (Professionnels en règlement des différends SA); Louis Marquis , Ph.D., Ad.E., Secretary General - École de technologie supérieure. From its very first articles, the new Code of Civil Procedure announces the innovative philosophy that underlies it. This philosophy is alternative dispute resolution (ADR). But what does that mean, exactly? Our two speakers will address the fundamental and practical aspects related to this subject. FRENCH WITH SI	Family, Community, Skills - 3 A - Fontaine E Mediation in Corporate /Aboriginal Negotiations: Impact Benefit Agreements Moderator: Ian V.B. Johnson LL.M, Ph.D, C.Med, Kykaik Inc; Chris Rockingham , VP, Business & Exploration, AuRico Gold Inc; Nadir André , Borden Ladner Gervais. The cornerstone of the Canadian economy lies in its natural resources and the Canadian constitution protects the rights of Aboriginal peoples when those resources are being developed. Opportunities for conflict and partnership lie at the fulcrum of those interests. Mediation can help to build constructive partnerships and avoid crippling dissension. ENGLISH WITH SI	Special Interest - 4 A - Fontaine F The Transformative Approach to Mediation John Peter Weldon , C.Med, Professor of Mediation, Lawyer (Ret.) Conflict destabilizes parties' experience of self and other. They interact in ways more vulnerable and self-absorbed than previously. Interaction becomes destructive and dehumanizing. With the appropriate help, parties are capable of changing the quality of their interaction to reflect personal strength (empowerment shifts) and responsiveness (recognition shifts), creating a climate conducive to reaching coherent and lasting outcomes. BILINGUAL WITH SI
	10:30 Refreshment Break and Networking Opportunity	10:45 - 12:00 - 1 B - Fontaine C Appeals and Reviews of Arbitral Awards – What happens after Sattva? Moderator: Michael Schaffer , Dentons; Babak Barin , Barin Avocats; Earl A. Cherniak QC, FCI Arb, Lerners; Michael Feder , McCarthy Tétrault. What is the scope of appeal or review of an arbitral award? What about the standard of review regarding the arbitrators' determination of their own competence? Does it matter if the arbitration is domestic or international? What can parties do to affect or eliminate statutory appeal or review rights? What are the pros and cons to contracting out of appeal rights? What has the Supreme Court's recent decision in Sattva Capital Corp. v. Creston Moly Corp. 2014 SCC 53 done to affect any of these matters? And, what is the effect of Sattva on contractual interpretation in arbitration and the courts, including the effect on appeals in both. ENGLISH WITH SI	- 2 B - Fontaine D The Obligation to Consider Private Prevention and Resolution Processes in Québec's New Code of Civil Procedure Nathalie Croteau , Mediator, Arbitrator, Trainer; Evelyne Pedneault , Commission des droits de la personne et de la jeunesse; Marie-Claude Rigaud , Professor, Faculty of Law, Université de Montréal; ; Michel Robert , BCF, former Chief Justice of the Québec Court of Appeal. What is the obligation to consider? What is its scope? Is there distinctions to vulnerable persons? How this obligation will be sanctioned? How does manifest itself this ethical duty to counsel? Interactive: we wish to discuss this new obligation with participants. FRENCH, BILINGUAL Q&A, WITH SI	- 4 B - Fontaine F Confidentiality in Arbitration and Mediation: Does It Exist? How Can We Enforce It? ENGLISH WITH SI Moderator: Jim McCartney , LL.B, C.Arb, C.Med, McCartneyADR; David Bristow , QC, LSM, Mediation & Arbitration; Bruce Garrow , FCI Arb, Mediator & Arbitrator, JAMS; Louise Novinger Grant , Burnet Duckworth & Palmer. Most mediating and arbitrating parties, and often their counsel, assume the proceedings are private and confidential. Recent events suggest the assumption may be wrong. Arbitration hearings open to the public! Mediation discussions disclosed in open court! This panel will discuss the law and practice in domestic and international contexts. The takeaway: how to achieve ADR privacy and confidentiality when you want it. ~ Notice ~ Paperless Conference: you are encouraged to bring your tablet / laptop / other device to access any handouts and presentations.Wireless Network: Hilton-Meetings Password: bonaventure4949 (Convention Floor Only)Session Materials: http://adrcanada.ca/services/documents.cfm User Name: Password:

Partnerships and Collaboration

ADRIC has partnered with the Canadian Corporate Counsel Association (“CCCA”) to create the most unique ADR event you will ever attend. CCCA’s input and attendance is a major contribution to this year’s program. ADRIC is also collaborating with International Chamber of Commerce, Canada (“ICC Canada”) to enhance the arbitration stream. All in all, over 40 stimulating sessions in four specialized streams - this is Canada’s largest, most prestigious and most important ADR event of the year.
