Sept
20

International Centre for Dispute Resolution

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM EST

The event will feature a discussion about accelerating change from our blind spots of community, diversity, access, representation, bias and culture in dispute resolution in Canada and abroad.

CIArb Canada Branch 9th Annual Symposium

3:30 PM - 6:00 PM EST

The Symposium will feature a keynote speech followed by the Award presentation and virtual cocktail hour. We are pleased that the 9th Annual Symposium will feature J. Brian Casey as a keynote speaker.

International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution

11:00 AM - 1:00 PM EST

The CPR Canada will feature two panel discussions on dispute prevention and risk management, as well as arbitration in banking disputes, exploring why arbitration has not been used as widely in this sector.

ADRIC Arbitration Forum

2:00 PM - 5:30 PM EST

Panel topics will be case management arbitration, funding, and legislative reforms. Key-note speaker Bill Horton will offer us his views on challenges and opportunities regarding commercial arbitration in Canada.

Sept
21

Western Canada Commercial Arbitration Society

2:00 PM - 4:00 PM EST

The Western Canada Commercial Arbitration Society Program will feature an opening presentation and Q&A period, followed by two consecutive panels. Topics include Biases in adjudication in the age of Zoom, Evidentiary problems arising in virtual and in person hearings, and The arbitration record – what is and is not part of the record in an arbitration hearing.

Sept
22

Vancouver International Arbitration Centre

4:30 PM - 5:30 PM EST

VanIAC will host a discussion of its new international arbitration rules, followed by a presentation of the following VanIAC awards to recipients: (1) Excellence in Arbitration, and (2) Acknowledgement Significant Contribution to VanIAC.

Toronto Commercial Arbitration Society

11:00 AM - 1:00 PM EST

TCAS will host an expert panel on drafting arbitration clauses and agreements to learn how to ensure your arbitration does not contain traps for unwary, and your award survives any attempt to overturn it or set it aside.

Experts Panel

1:30 AM - 3:00 PM EST

Join us to hear what the experts have to say about preparing their reports and educating the tribunal to get the most from their evidence.

Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners

3:30 PM - 5:30 PM EST

Dramatic and profound changes have and will continue to affect the way arbitrations will be conducted. These coincide with a flurry of updated versions of institutional rules. A YCAP panel will offer a thematic survey and discussion of such changes through three main lenses: Transparency, The Taking of Evidence, and Canadian Trends and Developments.

ICC Canada Annual Conference

10:30 AM - 2:30 PM EST

The ICC Canada Annual Conference will kick off with a discussion aimed at exploring international arbitration as a transnational system of justice and arbitral institutions as its backbone. The incoming President of the ICC Court of International Arbitration, Claudia Salomon, will share with us during a Fireside Chat her plan for the coming years at the Court. Finally, four talented advocates will spar over two hotly contested issues: the role of AI in the adjudication of disputes and its (in)ability to achieve the same or better dispute outcomes as human decision-making, and the (un)settled status of regulation of third-party funding in international commercial arbitration.
