

ADRIG-RICS National Canadian Construction Adjudicator Training Program

Module 1 - All About Construction Adjudication

Prompt payment and mandatory construction adjudication legislation is being introduced across Canada at provincial and federal level.

Construction adjudication provides a fair, quick and cost-effective forum for reducing payment delays in the construction cycle.

A comprehensive and practical one day overview of how adjudication works and how to get the best out of it.

Learn what construction adjudication is, how it works in practice, its place within alternative dispute resolution and what a party to an adjudication can expect.

This module involves a practical case study and is presented by one of the UK's most experienced adjudicators on the RICS President's Panel.

Professional Development Accreditation:

- Eligible for ADRIC Continuing Education & Engagement (CEE) points
- CPD accreditation pending from all Canadian law societies and other professional bodies

Book your place now

Fee: $299 plus applicable taxes

Who should attend?

This course is designed for employers, contractors, developers, employees of government departments, lawyers, quantity surveyors, architects, engineers, project managers, and anyone who would benefit from a clear understanding of adjudication.

Certification: Certificate of Completion

ADRIG-RICS National Canadian Construction Adjudicator Training Programme - Introduction to Construction Adjudication

Training Date: Monday 31 January 2022
10:00 - 18:00 (ET)

