

ADR Institute of Canada
Institut d'arbitrage et de médiation du Canada <sup>TM/MC</sup>

ADR Perspectives Perspectives PRD

Perspectives on alternative dispute resolution for ADR parties and their lawyers.

Perspectives sur la résolution des différends pour les parties et leurs avocats.

Author's Guidelines

1. Purpose of this publication/nature of articles sought:
  - (a) Practical/contains suggestions and general advice
  - (b) Relevance to ADR end users (eg. corporate in-house counsel group)
  - (c) Not academic, nor pure case comment-style (without the advice component)
  - (d) Arbitration, mediation, or other ADR topics
  - (e) Seeking both French and English articles
2. Tangible aspects – each article to be comprised of/accompanied by the following components, all in one Word document:
  - (a) Article: 500 to 900 words
  - (b) Short précis of the article suitable for translation and as a teaser intro (60 – 100 words)
  - (c) One to two sentence bio of author
  - (d) Link to full website bio of author
3. Articles should be submitted as follows:

Arbitration: Bryan C. Duguid QC, FCI Arb, Co-Editor, duguidb@jssbarristers.ca

Mediation: Paul D. Godin, B.A. B.Sc. LL.B. C.Med, Co- Editor, paul@katalystresolutions.com

Other ADR topics: Bryan C. Duguid